News Flash:

There will be no March Quilt Show this year. The Cal-Co Quilters' Guild show is changing its dates and location. Instead of the Home Tour weekend in September, it will be the second weekend in July at Marshall High School.

We are having a Spring Cleaning sale on the weekend the quilt show would have been scheduled so keep a late March visit to the shop on your calendar.

Merchandise from Quilt Market continues to arrive. I ordered all the Weeks Dye Works pearl cottons in sizes 5 & 8. There is also a basket of Treenway silk thread. They are all gorgeous and work beautifully with the wools (mostly bright of course) that have been coming in. There are also several bolts of flannel and woven fabrics to compliment your wool projects.

I tried a Bloc-Loc ruler the last time I needed to make many flying geese and was amazed at how perfectly those geese turned out. Most of the Bloc-Loc line is now on the ruler rack to help make your piecing easier.

Nancy Yuill started working here in December and would like to see a Civil War Miniature group in the shop. Would you rather have a sit n sew or projects? Call or email

Garden Tea Party and Country Crossroads, are two new Blocks of the Month in the planning stages. They should start late spring or early summer. Pictures are on the last page.

Hope to see you soon!
