September 2014

It was wonderful to see so many of you this summer. The Row by Row Experience brought many visitors who had not been to the shop before. I hope you come to see us again.

Next year's Row by Row theme will be announced at Quilt Market In October. I'll be there and will let you know all the details.

We just received Kaye England fabric for any of you attending her workshop at the Cal-Co Guild in Nov.

For William Morris fans, two new collections are on order. Michelle Hill's Arts & Crafts collection for In the Beginning just arrived and Barbara Brackman's Best of Morris for Moda should be here in February.

Missouri Star Quilt Company is truly a phenomenon. We have copies of all four of the BLOCK magazine and lots of pre-cuts to make the projects in them.

Kathy is leading a new group for anyone interested in making projects from the magazines. It will be on the fourth Wednesday of every month starting in October and is only $5 per month. Come join her.

I'm still very impressed with the Hiroshima needles and using them on a new wool applique project. It's the right time of year to play with wool again and a box from Woolly Lady arrives every month with new temptations. Of course most of our wool is bright, just the thing for gray winter days.

Currently we have two books that show you how to use panels. These books are full of ideas and help on figuring yardage to transform them into very attractive pieces.

Another recent addition is new Flower Fairy fabric from Michael Miller. There are lots of blues and yellows to play with this time

There are several new volunteers working with the Hospice group. Welcome and thank you for coming. Donations of fabric to help with the quilts they donate to Hospice each month are always appreciated and there is always room for more stitchers.

Hope to see you soon!
