Row x Row
Home Sweet Home
Continues through Sept. 6

We have two rows this year:
The Shop and Marshall's Fountain

The applique pieces for both rows are precut and fused.

Oh my, it's been a long time since I've put a proper newsletter together!

Quilt Market was wonderful as usual. We have many of Laura Heine's wonderful fabric collage patterns in and more are on the way. We now have the full line of Superior Threads Kimono Silk. This is wonderful for hand or machine applique.

Alex Andersen is promoting a new line of mats and rulers called Quilters' Select. The rulers do not slip and they have been so well received that we are already restocking some sizes. The mats are heavier than usual and marked on both sides. We are using one here at the shop and have been very pleased with it.

The Hoffman Watercolor batiks are continuing to arrive every other month. These are a beautiful addition to our batik selection.

We have all 30 of Moda's new Grunge colors and the full line of Gelato ombre fabrics.

Quilting Treasures has printed Monopoly and Scrabble panels and coordinates. They will make great gifts for anyone on your list.

Now that Fall is just around the corner we have classes to offer again. Be sure to check the selection.

Kari Ruedisale will now be at the shop on the first Thursday of every month to pick up and deliver quilts. Please remember that quilts picked up or delivered here must use batting purchased here.

Hope to see you soon!

Karen
