The New Year is here and we have lots of new fabric for you to enjoy!

Fabrics from Welcome Home in Spring have been put onto the shelf. There are still two quilt kits available if you prefer to make this darling throw from a kit.

We now have all of Marcus Brothers' New Aged Muslins. They are currently in the Reproduction room but will work well with any style. These are only a few of the 30 bolts we received.

For those of you who have little ones to sew for (or just loved the book as a child) Rainbow Fish is a really nice line.

And to brighten these gloomy winter days, we have Soleil in yellow, gray and black.

January 2017

The shop is now carrying Eversewn sewing machines. There is a Sparrow 25 in the classroom for you to try.

These are very nice machines for a reasonable price. Come and take a look!

Some of our areas have been rearranged and give the front of the store a new look. Novelties are easier to see and Asian prints are once again showcased.

There are also Blocks of the month starting soon.

We also need a pattern count for Bird Walk

Here are the blocks for Conestoga Crossing. This is a 95" x 112" reproduction quilt designed by Pam Buda. It is absolutely gorgeous in person. The pattern is $66.00 and fabrics are $90.00 every three months for three installments. As soon as we have a pattern count we're ready to get started.

This lovely batik wall hanging combines piecing and applique. The pattern is 36.95 and fabrics are $15.00/month for 12 months. This can also start as soon as I know how many patterns to order.

This year Nancy's block of the month is a Rail Fence in reproduction fabric.

You receive fabric for 20 blocks per month for $8.00. It finishes to about 70"x70" when set as shown.

This starts in March so call to get on the list.

Just a reminder that Kari Ruedisale will now be at the shop on the first Thursday of every month to pick up and deliver quilts.

Please remember that quilts picked up or delivered here must use batting purchased here.

Hope to see you soon!

Karen
