August 2017

My goodness, where has the time gone?

Hope you have had a good spring and summer and are thinking about autumn and holiday sewing.

The big news at the shop is that Gail is back with us. Be sure to give her a warm welcome and look for new classes that she is teaching. She is also starting two new groups.

One of these focuses on making containers and small gift items. It starts in September so you can get several things ready for gifting this year.

Christmas and Halloween fabrics are in so it's a good time to get started.

For all of you working on Bird Walk, Mary Culp is here on Mondays and she will be glad to answer any questions you may have about the pattern. Come on in and see her.

Christmas and Halloween fabrics are front and center at the shop right now. It's time to get started on those holiday gifts!

If you need to brush up on your cutting skills come in any Thursday, any time for "Cutting with Kathy". She will demonstrate the tools and techniques for accurate cuts every time.

Fabric keeps arriving almost daily and we keep tweaking the shop to find a place for it. Clearance has been moved to the big cutting room, Asian is now in the classroom and the black & whites are sharing the book room.

Hope to see you soon!
