February 2018

Welcome to 2018! Last year went by so quickly that my head is still spinning. The shop was busy as was my personal life.

I had back surgery in late September and am recovering nicely but it’s still difficult to work an entire day. If you haven’t seen me for a while I’m sorry I missed you. One of these days I’ll be back to normal.

The shop is very fortunate to have a wonderful group of women working here who can keep everything going just fine without me.

The clearance fabrics are now back in the main cutting room and all the seasonal lines are at the back of the classroom.

We added lots of fabrics to the color wall last year so you will have some different looks to choose from.

There are two more William Morris lines coming in soon.

Hope to see you soon!
